

Festival of Peace and Resistance:

A Space for People of Color to Discuss War & Racism
sponsored by Racial Justice 911 Chicago

SOCIAL FORUM: SATURDAY, MAY 17, 2003

12:30 pm – 5:00 pm

At the Southwest Youth Collaborative 6400 S. Kedzie - Chicago, IL 60629

Workshops, performances, speakers, food and more!

Join us for an afternoon of political analysis around issues such as U.S. militarization and empire building, global racism, and “Homeland Security.” Featuring popular education and organizing skills workshops, and cultural resistance performances! CHILD CARE AVAILABLE.

Both locations are accessible.

PRESS CONFERENCE & CULTURAL RALLY: MONDAY, MAY 19, 2003

5:15 pm – Gathering & press conference
at Adalberto United Methodist Church,
2716 W. Division St. - Chicago, IL

6:30 pm – Rally for Peace & Resistance at La Casita Community Garden (Division between Rockwell & Washtenaw)

For more information on the RACIAL JUSTICE 911 Coalition or the 5/17 SOCIAL FORUM contact Jeremy Lahoud at 773.476.3534 x25, via email at jlahoud@juno.com, or visit rj911.org.
For information on the 5/19 PRESS CONFERENCE & RALLY contact Nina Farnia at 773.476.3534 x62 or via email at nfarnia@hotmail.com

Sponsored by the members of the RACIAL JUSTICE 911 CHICAGO COALITION including the Adalberto United Methodist Church, Arab American Action Network, Arab Youth Leadership Academy, Generation Y, INCITE Women of Color Against Violence, Korean American Resource & Cultural Center, National Boricua Human Rights Network, Nicaragua Solidarity Committee, Philippine Solidarity Committee, Project VOZ of AFSC, Southwest Youth Collaborative, Video Machete, Young Koreans United & many others!

Endorsers: Beyondmedia Education, Chicago Coalition Against War & Racism, International Action Center.